It's Halloween and scary things go bump in the night. Blam has to find the best way to scare off the creatures that lurk in the shadows. Make sure to stay in the light to remain safe. What's New [b]Scare the Bump - Here is a fun new puzzle game that will send you into a freaky world of blocks that make sounds and try to scare you away! (This should be fun for some older players, but only for a short time!)[/b] [b]With the Halloween update we have added so many new things! While it isn't live yet just check it out! [b][url= Authorization[/url]][/b] [b]Domain authorization[/b] prevents access to private domains and subdomains on your account, limiting site owners from modifying them or hosting web sites on their assets. [b]Automate teaching platform[/b] has the ability to modify DNS data on any domain that it is authorized to. We do this to make adding new sites to automates network easier as it maintains the original DNS structure and domain records. The user can set permissions on individual sites as well as manage the overall permissions group for the authorization application. [b]For all new domains added to your account[/b], your DNS settings will be blank, so that new sites can be accessed without risk of leaking private data. [b]Domains can be added to Automate from the root domain setup to custom domains that you have already purchased or are listed on domain resellers sites or from all unique subdomains to each one. [b]Managing authorizations is done by grouping together similar subdomains, like all personal sites or specific brands, say [u][b]Lovilla[/b][/u] or [u][b]Walmart[/b][/u] and then setting the permissions for each site.
