India, the world's fourth largest market for internet penetration as well as the region with the maximum internet broadband growth, has a huge potential market for the internet with abundant broadband population and scope for the high-speed internet services. Hi-speed internet has always been a dream for the Indians, and now they can get it at an affordable price. The fastest internet broadband ISP in India is Tata DoCoMo. The firm has a range of completely electric vehicles that it has been marketing in India for several years. Tata Motors is keen to make inroads in China, the world's biggest market for electric vehicles, and also showcase the strengths of its industrial operations. Tata Sky has made changes to its data cap policy for its users. The company has notified an increase in the data cap for its broadband and FTTH offerings. The new cap would be Rs 9,999 for a broadband plan, Rs 4,999 for an FTTH plan, Rs 7,991 for its FTTH service with a PureConnect modem, Rs 8,999 for its FTTH service with DSP modem and for its ADSL services it would be Rs 999. Facing competition from Reliance Jio, Tata Docomo has intensified its brand building exercise by launching a new campaign in the form of a short film, titled 'Don't Let Your Eyes Sleep,' which features Arjun Kapoor. Tata DOCOMO is offering 2GB data for free for the first time in its unlinked customers, not linked with the television sets with any of the internet plans. Customers will get the 2GB of data free with the data pack of Rs 1299 and Rs 2499 in a month for a period of 2 months. It is a tariff of Rs 999 for 3GB and Rs 1,499 for 5GB.
